Will they have found some white ants in some Torrance houses...

Judge Jensen says the height of hard luck would be to have these white ants eat up a house...

A termite queen she lays 900,000 eggs every 24 hours...

If I had that many children they would have to eat wood, too.

The termite control man who is working in town uses chemicals...

900,000 babies a day is a million too many.

No wonder the queens and kings grow wings every six months...

For the serious part about these white ants you can read it in another part of the paper.
